Frigerio

FRIGERIO

DESIGNER: FERRUCCIO LAVIANI

With the Ada armchair, Ferruccio Laviani revisits the classic Italian design of the 1970s in a contemporary key for a living room armchair with a strong presence and personality, given by the particular wooden frame with generous sections, which supports the single volume of the padded seat and backrest covered in fabric or leather. The proportions of the Ada armchair make it perfect both for residential use, both in the living room as well as in the night area, and as a furnishing element in the contract sector.
