

ARIANNA LOUNGE CHAIR

FRIGERIO

DESIGNER: UMBERTO ASNAGO

Frigerio

Umberto Asnago updates his collaboration with Frigerio by designing a wide range of new products.

The seating family is extended with the armchair Arianna, with structure in solid wood and body covered either in leather or fabric, which enhances the tailoring manufacturing of Frigerio in the details of the refined stitching tone-on-tone in the leather version. In the armchair Arianna the armrests open up like wings and the body is gently laid on the structures as if it is floating, thanks to a partially hidden fixing.

To the sight the modern armchair matches lightness to the solidity of solid wood and the Frigerio capability to work solid wood in a tailoring way.
